

OneNote and Evernote comparison (as at November 2018)

	OneNote	Evernote (free) https://evernote.com/basic	Google Keep https://keep.google.com
Devices	Windows, Mac, iOS, Android and web	Windows, Mac, iOS, Android and web	Android, iOS and webText, list
Upload limits	Unlimited monthly uploads to Office 365 1TB storage for Sussex staff and students http://www.sussex.ac.uk/its/services/software/owncomputer/office	60 MB/month, 25MB per note, 100,000 notes in total, 250 notebooks	Unlimited.
Types of content	Text, images, web content, emails, tables,	Text, images, web content, checklist	Text, list, audio, drawing, photo, web link.
Sharing notes	Yes	Yes	Yes
Tagging	Narrow range of tags.	Yes	Yes (called labels)
Other Pros, Cons and distinguishing features	Offline access to notes on mobile.	Free account limits syncing to 2 devices plus web.	Not as fully featured as OneNote or Evernote
	Free-form	Saving emails to notes requires Plus or Premium account.	Links to Google Drive and Google Calendar